

PROPOSAL TITLE

Author Name¹, Author Name²

¹Author Affiliation, institution, country, email

²Author Affiliation, institution, country, email

1 THEME OF PROPOSAL, RATIONALE AND FORMAT OF CONTRIBUTION

- a) Choose one of the themes of the conference.
- b) Indicate the rationale of the proposal justifying why it fits the chosen conference topic.
- c) Indicate the format of the contribution: paper, poster, recorded presentation, workshop, hands-on session, thematic debate or other type of working session. If it is a group session, provide details about other persons involved.

2 DESCRIPTION OF PROPOSAL

The text of the proposal should be between 300 words and 2000 words and should cover the following sections:

- a) Introduction to the proposal.
- b) Objectives of proposal.
- c) Work methodology.
- d) Conclusions/results.

3 OTHER RELEVANT INFORMATION

Indicate, if necessary, other information that may contribute to the value of the proposed contribution.

4 TEXT GUIDELINES

All the text must be in one column and Arial font with single-spaced 10-point interline spacing.

5 REFERENCES (only if necessary to justify your proposal or abstract)

[1] Reference

[2] Einstein, A. (1916). General Theory of Relativity. Annalen der Physik 49(7), pp. 769-822.